hankfulness for Peace, the Subjects Duty to GOD's Vicegerent.

SERMON

Preach'd at

t. James Garlick-Hythe, London,

And in the Oratory of the ROYAL HOSPITAL, Greenwich,

JULY 1713.

On Occasion of the General Thanksgiving

Appointed by HER MAJESTY

FOR

PEACE.

PHILIP STUBBS, M.A. Rector of St. James Garlick-Hythe, London; and irst Chaplain of Her Majesty's Royal Hospital for Seamen, at Greenwich.

LONDON,

nted for R. and J. Bonwick, at the Red-Lion in St. Paul's Church-Yard, 1713.

XC The Right OHN

Lord

HON Presiden

AMB the Stat H

LEN

at the () whom, Nation, u

Vation, U
His V I C
lone abroa

T Ought
Pratitude
Espective

With all

TO THEIR XCELLENCIES. The Right Honourable and Right Reverend, OHN Lord Bishop of London, Lord PRIVY-SEAL;

The Right Honourable HOMAS, Earl of Strafford, President of the Board of Admiralty.

AMBASSADOR Extraordinary the STATES GENERAL of the United Provinces;

HER MAJESTY's LENIPOTENTIARIES FOR

t the CONGRESS of UTRECHT:

whom, The most worthy Deed for this Nation, under the Providence of God and his VICEGERENT, hath been happily one abroad.

THIS DISCOURSE, ought proper to promote the utmost ratitude for the same, within their Excellencies spective Jurisdictions at Home,

Is Humbly Offer'd, With all Thankfulness, and Duty, By their Excellencies Most devoted, obedient Servant, Ph. Stubbs.

the tree to a series of the thirty bus co file suchwest sib who vigget and find a stage de la la companya de County (2 mail middle grant all more entire Line Level

le accept akfulness. nd were

ets XX

Seeing

ess, an e unto We acci

t noble

d fudea, W lar Occa Dutiful n the I cher, on ent Tim bority und

eing that very mor Providen

ih Tong ih Heart oo near erestless, dissful I leaven;

As XXIV. part of the 2d and 3d Verses:

Seeing that by thee we enjoy great Quies, and that very worthy Deeds are ne unto this Nation by thy Providence, We accept it always, and in all Places, st noble Felix, with all Thankfulness.

Manners, did Tertullus the Orator Address himself to the Roman Governour dudea, when he bespoke his Favour on a parlar Occasion: But with how much more Truth Dutiful Recognition (at a greater Distance in the Imputation of Flattery) may every wher, on the general Solemnity and Joy of this cent Time, speak of our Sovereign, with all in hority under Her, in the very same Language; ting that by Her we enjoy great Quietness, and wery worthy Deeds are done unto this Nation by Providence, e accept it always, and in all Places, with all nd were these but the Expressions of every in Tongue, as they are the Sense of every true in Heart; Were there not a Generation amongst on near of Kin to the Israelites of old, never erestless, never more unquiet; than when under blissful Instuences, and peculiar Vouchsafements leaven; What had we more to do, after our

humi-

humble and pious Returns, best made, as we ha lately offer'd them, in the Voice of the Chur to the Author of Peace, and Lover of Concord, as w as the Giver of all Victory, But to lend an att tive Ear to a recital of fuch Glories, within Compass of the smallest Part, 'tis hoped, of a male Reign, as might strike us readily into a coming Gratitude to God's Vicegerent, and the Her Ministers, who have attended continually upon very thing, That by Her Providence, during t Administration, such worthy Deeds might be anto this Nation, whereof we at this Day rejoin and at length might enjoy great Quietness, wh we befeech God daily, that He would be plea with Grace and Truth, to continue and fanctify to and to our Posterity.

But First, Let some Christians learn from Jewish Advocate in my Text, That Thankfulness becoming Duty, nay, a Debt, payable by all Those through whom worthy Deeds are done unto People.

Secondly, That when Nations enjoy great Quiet or Peace, by their Governours means; Subjects a receive it, as the Jews did in my Text at Fe Hands, always, and in all Places, with all Thankful

Lastly, I shall enquire summarily, what we Deeds have been done for this Nation, since Her jesty's Happy Accession to the Throne? How Quietness we do, or may enjoy upon the property of the we will but be sensible of our own piness? And from a short Comparison bet that which was done thro' the Providence of for the Jews, and of our Gracious Sovereign to Her British Subjects; I shall pursue this under Concession, That we ought all of us to receive

ter alwa mkfulnej

Let 1 vocate i ress, is all, to th my People ratitude Place, nt for Fa fing and eavours I ferve, at what c , may w ore Abra y (whice God or 1 IV. 4. k before gnizing hty is fa to his Of b is thou Eyes of n He, w taking of , he mad

ling Savi

ge: Ar owerful

lition di

t he lik

same, in

e Benefice

scob, his

'd and

al

a th

on t

78 0

ejoi

W

olea

y to

rom

ness

all

unto

Quiet

ectsa

at F

enklu

at m

Her

How

own!

n bet

ice of eign to unden

receiv

Amongst

ter always, and in all Places, with the greatest mkfulness imaginable. But Let some Christians learn from the Jewish weate in my Text, That Gratitude, or Thankus, is a becoming Duty, nay, a Debt, payable all, to those thro' whom worthy Deeds are done un-my People. iratitude, as it imports Thankfulness in the Place, or an hearty and ready Acknowledgnt for Favours receiv'd; Then Prayer for God's fing and Rewards upon the Benefactor; with eavours of requital, as opportunity and ability I ferve, is fo natural a piece of positive Fastice, at what our Blessed Lord saith of his own Exist-, may with a due Qualification be applied to it, bre Abraham was, I am, Joh. VIII. 58. For this y (which fets a Price upon every good Action God or Man,) shined forth originally in Abel, IV. 4. who bringing forth the Firstling of his k before the Lord, and the Fat thereof, thereby gnizing God's Blessing upon his Fold, The Alhty is said thence to have had a respect to him, to his Offering. And for the fake of Gratitude, his thought afterwards to have found Grace in Eyes of the Lord, Gen. VI. 8 .--- VIII. 20, 21. n He, walking with God, built for Him an Altar; taking of every clean Beast, and of every clean , he made a Sacrifice unto the Lord of a sweet ing savour, for his Deliverance from the ge: And as this Antediluvian Patriarch had owerful Sense upon him of a grateful Relition due to the Supreme Benefactor, 'tis gad and believ'd from his Precepts so called, t he likewise taught his Children to practise same, in a due Proportion, towards all that Beneficent, till God gave his Ordinances uncob, his Statutes and his Judgments unto Israel.

A 4

Amongst these indeed, 'tis observ'd, that Mo has no Sanction against Ingratitude, as Lycure enacted none in his Institutions, because Nan had done it to their Hands, in graving the clear and most perfect Law on the Hearts of the People But, when the God of the Hebrews rebukes t Gainsayers amongst them, (for such there were ev amongst His chosen) He doth it with such Emphasis by his Servant Moses, particularly in t 6th Verse of the 32d Chapter of Deuteronomy, ve thus requite the Lord, O foolish People and unwi Is not He thy Father that hath bought thee? Hath not made thee, and establish'd thee? That fromt girding Reproof, together with the Context, T Song is styled by the Learned the Epitome of the P tateuch; As if they who could be guilty of Ingrain against the fullest Light and Conviction in Nati offended against the whole Law, and not in one si Point only. And this the Jews were so sensible that except in the Instance mention'd, of their h Ingratitude towards God, who had done so g Things for them; where yet, seeing they were no See, and hearing they were not to understand; wh they were doom'd to obstinacy, and made foolish Turn over the Sacred History, yo find no where more Records of retaliating g Turns, whether to Inferiors, Equals, or Super than in that Peoples Practice; Infomuch, when our Saviour would enforce His more vine Improvements of their Old Law upon Followers, of Loving their very Enemies, of fing them that cursed them, of doing good to that hated them, and the like, He impresse upon them by an Appeal to their avowed ctice of Gratitude amongst Men of the W Characters in all that Nation, who were to do good to them from whom they received If ye love them which love you, or do good to ch do go e than o ? Matt r publicl e thankf of many rs, plead ullus in n being c Degree, for my was und Heathe People erer of oyer of s of Hi Rebellion asar his lications had done ying the n and Kin Cities, Temple, n with ny of th in prayi

ng God He migl

pray for

n, and f

eir Days

n: Then

il for fi

the Shado d under th

ıt

T

P

tit

Vat

e fi

ble ir h

o g

e no wh

lish yo

ing g

Super

ich,

more upon , of

d to prelle owed

the V

were eived

th do good to you, what thank have ye, what do you than other, do not even Sinners and Publicans the Matt. V. 46. Luk. VI. 32. Yes, They requited r publick Benefactors, they pray'd for them, they e thankful for them : I felect but one Example of many; tho' Rahab, the Men of Gideon, and rs, plead for the Jews in this Affair, as well as ullus in my Text; But the Example I shall febeing one, wherein the Jews were grateful Degree, and by way of Anticipation, it arfor my Affertion, the more abundantly: The was under Nabuchodonofor. A King, who was Heathen, a Tyrant, a cruel Oppressor of People of God; who had been a Murerer of many of their Nation, and a Deover of their Country, as our Church Res of Him in Her first Homily against wil-Rebellion: For this Nabuchodono for (and for asar his Son also) they made their earnest lications to God; not for the morthy Deeds ad done for their Nation; fuch were, 'The ying their Kings, their Nobles, their Chiln and Kinsfolks; the burning their Countries Cities, even Jerusalem it self, and the Ho-Temple, and the carrying the residue of n with him Captives into Babylon: Not ny of these morthy Deeds did they requite in praying for Him; and by implication ng God for Him too; But for the Love He might bear to their Nation hereafter; pray for the Life of Nabuchodonofor King of n, and for the Life of Balthasar his Son; hir Days may be upon Earth, as the Days of : Then, fay they, if God fees us thus ul for future Mercies, the Lord will give h, and lighten our Eyes, and we shall live the Shadow of Nabuchodonosor King of Babyd under the Shadow of Balthasar his Son, and ood to

We

we shall serve them many Days, and find Favo in their fight, Baruch I. 12.

But if we may learn Gratitude from the Jews, wards those who actually did, or but so much might do good and worthy Deeds of any kind that People; then surely, in the Second Place,

Ildly, When Nations enjoy great Quietness, Peace, by the Providence of their Governours, who are in Subjection, are to receive it, as Jews did in my Text at Felix's Hands, always, in all Places, with all Thankfulness.

Now that we may the better be appriz'd of Merit of Felix towards the Jews, we may le it from Josephus to be this: That whilft He Governour of Judea, He cleared the Country Thieves and Murtherers, with Juglers or Ench ers: The former were either a Set of ill I who had infested the Country, and had ruine almost with Fire and Sword for near 20 1 together, under Eleazar their Captain; or t called Sicarii, who, with short Swords Stilletto's under their Garments, did as I mischief in the City, by secretly Stabbing against whom they had a grudge, or hired fo to do; and then crying out Mi first, made further uproars to their own vantage, and the great Detriment of the Citi The other, a fort of Vagabonds and Impostor. less mischief indeed with their Hands, but ed more with the formidabler Weapons, Tongues: For, being desirous of Alteration der pretence of Religion, they made the fo frantick, That they inveigled 30000 of the to the Wilderness, under a colour of s them some Miracles, or Tokens of God's

my Thi

m at 1

should:

old fee

were,

eed, wi

Forces e their o

e ill M

Country

ht rega

an Ac

them, u

an the]

es, this

had ansi

him on lent Por

ment);

from

d be give

my to Br

t. Paul, rial; W

Jews he

ned, thro e Provide

ome for t

rorem, an

all Than

d in this,

us by or will of

of 1 le

try

inch

uine 20 Y

or t

ords

as I

ing

or

at Mi

OW

e Citi

, but

pons

eratio

the B

of the

God's

m at Liberty, viz. That the Walls of the Cishould fall down of themselves; and, That they ald see them do so from Mount Olivet where y were, about five small Furlongs thence; But ed, with an Intention to drive out the Ro-Forces from Jerusalem, and to fix there at etheir own Dominion over the People. From e ill Men of several forts, Felix, I say, cleared Country; Whether for his own fake, that He ht regain his Reputation, as one who had an Accomplice with some of them, and causthem, under colour of Devotion, to flay 70an the High Priest, (for which, and other Ins, this good Governour had done the Jews, had answer'd severely, had not Nero pardonim on his Brother Pallas's importunity, when sent Portius Festus to succeed him in that Goment); or, Whether it was for the fake of the from whom he might expect that Money be given him by them, (as He was no great my to Bribes, which is evident from his usage Paul, ver. 26. of this Chapter) is not much rial; Whether for one, or for t'other reason, Jews here, by the Mouth of their common er or Pleader, accept the great Quietness they ned, thro' the Destruction of these Miscreants, e Providence of Felix, (some of which he sent me for their Punishment, some he crucified rorem, and killed more upon the Spot) They ed it from him at all Times, and in all Places, all Thankfulness:

d in this, or a more Thankful manner, if it may e we to accept the Just and Honourable Peace us by our Soveraign; The Consideration of will offer it self more to our Advantage, my Third General; where I am,

IIIdly,

ph. Antiq. Jud. lib. 20. cap. 6.

IIIdly, To enquire summarily, what wor Deeds have been done for this Nation, since H Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne: He great Quietness we do, or may enjoy, upon present Peace, if we will but be sensible of own Happiness: And from a short Comparibetween that which was wrought for the good by the Providence of Felix; and for the British's jects, by our Gracious Sovereign, resolve, That ought all of us to accept the latter, always, and all Places, with the greatest Thankfulness imagina

In the Comparison between the Happines the Jews under Felix's Government, and the cities we enjoy under Her Gracious Majesty cannot escape the meanest Observer, That in Times too, we have had our share of Juglers and postors, if not of Murtherers and Robbers, and God be thanked, in a great Measure, be cle of them too.

...

To begin with the first; What else, I pray, the pretended Prophets, who sometime ago 10 from amongst our Selves, or by a new for Enchantment were conjured in amongst us by Enemies; and who, by the unparallell'd Cla on the fide of the Government, and Blasphe their own, became so audacious, as the En Impostor in Felix's Time, To call out many Sands without the City on a determinate Da assure them from the Lord, with the greatest fidence, what the Lord had not spoken, That the est of Miracles should be wrought at that Ti the fight of innumerable People, for the mation of their Way, in an immediate and Resurrection of one of the most abandon'd ofth selytes; Which they pretended to believe so that as one of their disguised Bigots boldly a ny self no m Infalls ons, th # Him alone Superi ed at 1 probab. ofm and under and King oon afte lought 1 feen at ter to a us inste nt Consti on of Goa r have t overeign : Days to confess, so oned; w of Mohar et; But o erers, and oft heinou claration de Memoirs,&

Nouveaux Memoirs pour servir a l'Histoire des misars par Monsieur de la Mothe, p. 5.

Reason I

lear them:

hall here

or after

mpious Pr

late, as if

donour of

of Honou

y well con

i

n

na

lec

el

eft

in and nd !

cle

ray,

010

W fo

is by

Cle

asphe

e Eg

many

te Da

reatest

at the

hat Ti

re des

ny self, in the very Crisis almost of the Juncture, no more questioned that the Fact would be as Infallible Spirit had given it out in some Agions, than that Lazarus heretofore was by Jesus Himself so raised from the Dead: And to alone be the Praise, That by the Vigilance of Superiours, so dangerous a Tumult was preed at last, even in the critical Season; Which probably terminated either in a Flood of Enasm and Confusion, (when many deluded People under such Impressions,) by a Declaration for and King Jesus, such as was made by the Millenaoon after the happy Restauration; or, Which ought no improbable Conjecture, we might feen at that Day, from the most unlikely ter to all appearance, one Fretender imposed us instead of many, to the Overthrow of our nt Constitution in the State, and the entire Subnof God's true Religion establish'd amongst us. r have the Murtherers been less defying to wereign and Her Laws, than they were of an-Days to Felix and His Government; ours, I onfess, some of them were not unlike the Sicarii oned; whilst they, as ashamed of the wicked of Mohamking, still perpetrated their intentions et; But others have been more open and avomed erers, and even challenging Honour to a Deed, of heinous and dishonourable of any other; for Reason I style them the more defying: Let lear themselves from the Imputation that can, hall hereafter be concerned in, or either or after the Fact, encourage or abet that mpious Practice of Duelling, so rife amongst the 0 late, as if it were the only Salvo for the inand tonour of a Gentleman: But such a mistaken d of th of Honour this is, furely, 'As is an Affront eveso well constituted Government; such a deoldly a ' liberate claration de Joseph Tornelle, & de Jean Toilier, p. 13. Memoirs, & la Declaration de Thomas Terrier, p. 14.

feafona

ves wi

Taxing

eed rer

Travelle

Felix a

stants of n'd their

Hooks

e peril

h the p

chant,

lings, co

es, Ther

no fmall

at as we

e Terror

e is the

rs, or ri

be taxed

and Se

ofty Pro

no Ga

gain m

Smaller

arily, in fulness, to

at worth

nce Her e? And upon the e of our

of this, a

he shinin

a Ten Ye

a Sermon

the mos

liberate Contempt, and ar open defiance of A thority, as nothing can be more; whilft it make the Laws cheap and ridiculous; the Solem ties of Justice a piece of Pageantry; and und mines the Foundations of Peace and Prosperit And if you proceed to enquire into the Religi of it, 'Tis a Principle so full of Pride, of P fion, and of Revenge; fo tempestuous and absur fo absolutely unallied to Reason and good ture, that even polisht Heathenism would be ashan A Practice, in short, as an ingeni Pen graphically describes it on, 'So contrary the Temper and Tendency of Christianity, · Hobbs's Creed is to the Apostles, as Light if Darkness, as God is to the Devil. This Prate so honest, so just, so lovely, and of such good Re having been authorized by Impunity, to a degree ven to become as it were a Party-Test and Trial of the most unequal and abominable; God alone kn unless his Vicegerent had mercifully interp how far the Mischief might have spread it se process of Time; If not as in Felix's Days, to desecrating the High Altars, and mingling Blood of the Consecrator with the Sacrifices; fure I am, the fatal Poniara (a very bad O was too deeply sheath'd in the Breast of a sonage, whose Character, in the most savage and Places, has been ever accounted Sacred: this Folly, we trust in God, is to proceed n ther, being now in the Hands of the Legisla To whom also, lastly, (as a Parallel Merit Reign with that of Felix's Government) are those gers of their Country to be publickly accountable, fuch are to be found) who, not content with a the Foreign Aceldemas their Glory, their Go and Their Gain, shall appear to have rendred th Place of their Nativity the Seat of War too,by feafonable and unconscionable enriching themves with the Spoils thereof, even in the Days Taxing: This fort of Pyrates, and some ors, of what kind foever, Tho' they have not ced rendred our Highways unoccupied, or made Travellers to walk thro' by-Paths, as in the Days Felix as well as Shamgar, except when the Iniants of our Villages ceased, 'cause they had n'd their Plowshares into Swords, and their Pru-Hooks into Spears: Yet the remembrance of e perilous Times cannot so soon be over the poor pitied Bankrupt Husbandman and chant, when by reason of the most unjust lings, cover'd over with the most plausible Prees, There was too much leading into Captivity: no small complaining in our Streets.

I

nic

ty. tis

Re

gre

ofs

e kn

terp

it se

15, to

gling

ices;

id Of

of a

age]

cred:

eed n

Legis

Merit

rethole

table,

with n

ir God

dred th

too,by

at as we now, God be thanked, no longer mee Terror at home, faying, Where is the Scribe?
The is the Receiver? Where is he that counted the rs, or rich Houses distinctly, that every one to be taxed according to the rigid Decree: As the thanked according to the rigid Decree: The Style of ofty Prophet, like broad Rivers and Streams, the no Galleys with Oars, nor any gallant Ships thanked the style of the style of the style
thanked the style of the style of the style
thanked the style of the style of the style
thanked the style of the style of the style
thanked the style of the style of the style
thanked the style
that the style of the style
thanked the style

at worthier Deeds have been done for this Naince Her Majesty's Happy Accession to the e? And how great Quietness we do, or may upon the present Peace, if we will but be e of our own Happiness.

of this, as was faid, fummarily. To treat he shining Particulars that amass the Gloa Ten Years Reign, were to make a Histoa Sermon; and to produce proper Restectithe most remarkable only, were for Ages to read with Pleasure, not a Preacher to pronount in the small compass allotted him on these Occounts, when he must needs be tiresome on most delightful Subject, where the many emin Articles are all highly deserving, each several

To refresh your Memories with a few only, wh may inspire you with gratitude to God, from whom challenge the highest Admiration.

good Things do come, and to those favour'd Instrum He has been pleased to make use of, for conve down the Bleffings to us, and to our Pofferity, I need only recite the chief of those Wonders w usher'd in, which accompanied, and which have that dreadful and pernicious War, in which Europe To long time has been almost wholly engaged. And first then: When we read in the B Stories of the two last Reigns, as they intro the glorious Annals of the most Serene and fant Princess which ever sway'd the Scept these Kingdoms; When we read there, I say, implacable Malice of the Romanist within I and the undaunted Ambition of a formidable N bour without, (who attempted, in concert, to jugate, as far as in them lay, both our Sou Bodies, to an abhorr'd Religion, And the detestable Slavery, which neither we nor ou Fathers were able to bear) and observe how open'd a Way to the Preservation of our of such a Queen, to such a Time as this, We but adore the infinite Wisdom and Goodness in making the most impolitick Escapes, th egregious Follies that ever were committed, tribute to the greatest Temporal Mercies a

When we are disposed, thro' the Course Majesty's Reign, to amaze our selves with the ments that an angry and avenging God of slict for the Chastisement of an Immortal Ma fran Just bloo de bot Blenhei and at alv f

iofa, an unnel; i Medi re in th of im

Terrible ned and in their of Intrepidi to Forei

r Curses a will bless will bless when in the control of the contro eople, but ion, in fine a and by ne well con to each oth

divided: ourer State oftablish'd h m rev

I

wl e d

rope

ed.

e B

atro

nd

eptr

ay,

in I

le N

t, to

Soul

the r our

how

our (

We

nes

es, th

ted,

cies a

urse

ith th

od d

al Ma

aly so called, by the Hand of a Woman; We canframe to our selves a more sensible Idea of Justice, than when we revolve in our Minds bloody Carnage, and dreadful Devastation de both of Navies and Armies at Granvall, and Henheim; at Vigo, and at Ramellies; at Velez Malaand at Audenarde; at Malplaquet, Almenara, Villa iofa, and Gibraltar; in the Netherlands, or the nnel; in Germany, or the Ocean; in Spain, or Medsterranean; The Successes vouchsafed us e in the Defeat of superior Forces, in the Capof immense Treasures, in the Destruction of adrons and Fleets, (styled indeed, some of them, Terrible and Invincible, but thenceforward, the ed and irrecoverable) will be standing Memorintheir own Histories, of the Conduct, the Courage, Intrepidity, of British Generals, Officers, and private , whether Seamen or Soldiers, when fighting he just Cause of their Religion, their Sovereign, their Country, And will give a lasting Admonito Foreign Princes or Prelates, That 'tis in vain defy Her, whom God hath not defied; and that t Curses are to no purpose against those, whom will bless altogether.

Then in the midst of a tedious and expensive to, in which the Ways and Means of promo-Religion and Arts are usually neglected; and other engage the Thoughts either of Princes exple, but such as shall salve the Honour of a ion, in subsisting and recruiting of Forces as and by Land: When we shall read, I say, he well compiled Chronicles of these Days, That he Blessings of this Reign are owing the Union lations, Languages, and Affections, the most atoeach other, the most irreconcileable, and the divided: The Propagation of Christianity in our State abroad; The Encouragement of stablished Worship at home, with the Protection tection of the Tolerated, and discredit of Occasion The Assistance afforded to Princes and Chiefs of different Persuasion, and even different Relie from our Selves: The Queen's unexampled Bon ty to the poorer Clergy: The Additional Churc granted for the Neighbouring Metropolis, w the new one for this Town: And which our always to be mention'd here, I am fure with eq Gratitude, the additional Branches of Income tained for this House of Invalides: These Image (not to mention the less publick Injunctions, private Munificence of Her Majesty, For Diffe ragement of Sale of Offices, for Regulation of Play-Houses, for putting a Stop to the Licentic ness of the Press, for the Religious Education young Children, (fuch as will in Time best strate and improve this Royal Foundation, pu ant to the primitive Designation thereof) with n other Particulars, tending to "the Punishmen "Wickedness and Vice, and the Maintenano God's true Religion and Virtue amongst us, I needs fill our Souls with a lively Sense of Goodness of the Almighty to us, in Preserving Gracious Sovereign hitherto; and by vouchs Her this Heavenly Wisdom, such as none of Kings have had that have been before Her, no it may be, shall there any after have the like; which we ought all of us to accept from God fuch Thankfuiness, as to turn all the Bleffings in nable upon Her; The Bleffings, as She has furely, of those that are ready to perish; The Ble that shall attend them who do good Deeds f House of our God, and the Offices thereof; with Bleffings of those that turn many to Kighteousness. When after this we shall pursue in our Tho the Triumphs of this War, closed up by the fuccessful, tho' most obstructed Negotiations ab I mean not those Triumphs which have always low S t of or ich ha effed N rance; Empir Meafur end and n the le and w n of bei res; W Deligh erve in He a P n Abiliti thren, b out a la a good mysteri inness of literal S ceit; and

lt despise

onfound t

nowledge

us, and in

ible Wil

these wo

our Natio

titude, W ifice of Th

iness: Le

ith our I

r selves

im in Ho

our Lif

ne All

STO CI W

U

eq

18 nag

i, disc

of

ntie

tion

eft i

pu

th n

men

nano

us, I

rving

uchi

one o r, net

like;

God

ngs II

has

ne Ble

eeds f

Wit

usness.

r Tho

by the

ions ab

lways!

pertect

ne Alloy from the Loss of the bravest of our low Subjects, and the Miseries of too great a t of our Fellow-Creatures: But those Triumphs, ich have given Peace and Liberty to many dieffed Nations, long fince groaning for the Deliance; those Triumphs, which extend the Bounds of Empire, and Advantages of our Trade, beyond Measure of our Fore-fathers; those Triumphs, which end and promote our most Holy Religion more Ways nthe less searching Heads are at present appriz'd and which put so many Thousands in a Condiof being for ever prosperous, in spight of themes; When, I fay, we pursue in our Thoughts Delights of these peaceful Triumphs, and then erve in the sequel, How one of the Sacred Order, He a Person of inflexible Resolution and uncomn Abilities, at the Head as it were of his deserving thren, became the fortunate Instrument of furnishout a lucky Incident in the wonderful Progress a good Cause; We cannot sufficiently adore mysterious Providence of God, in choosing the Inness of Preaching, as some were pleas'd to call it literal Sense, to confound the Wise in their own ceit; and one of the Weak, the most abused, the t despised Order of the World at that juncture, onfound those which were mighty; We cannot but nowledge, in all that has been hitherto wrought u, and in us, The visible Power of God, and the ible Wisdom of God.

hese worthy Deeds, which have thus been done our Nation by Providence, We have, as became accepted them from God with some Degree of titude, when we lately offer'd unto Him the isce of Thanksgiving, and told out his Works with mess: Let us go on to be thankful 'not only ith our Lips, but in our Lives, by giving up if selves to his Service, and by walking before im in Holiness and Righteousness all the Days our Life, He will be pleased, no doubt, to perfect that He hath wrought in us and for us, I granting us Peace of Conscience, with the modurable Peace of the Blest Abodes for ever and eve

B 2

Let us in the interim make suitable returns the happy Instruments which Providence hath ch sen to convey the Benefits of these good Du unto us.

Let Her who is Supreme in Piety and Virtue, well as in all Causes, and over all Persons, A whose Goodness, we may believe, has consecrate Her Arms, and sanctified Her Counsels, beyond to Fopperies of a Croisade, and the Artifices of Conclave, (which the Head of another Churvainly makes Use of.) Let Her, by our duti Submission, and by following, like Her, the Thur which make for Peace, Enjoy that Repose and Gry which is due to so much Merit, till, in Go due time, She enjoy the juster Recompence of ward, with the most persect Consummation:

Blifs, in His Heavenly Kingdom.

For Him next, whom the Queen delightet Honour, and whose wonderful Preservation, a the Affassing Stroke was given by desper Hands, plainly evinced, That it was expedient that one Man should live for the People; Let ! who is fo eminently distinguished for cond ing on the great and necessary Work, and th by faved Thousands of Souls from going guick into the Pit, or leading Lives more into ble than Death it self, Be never disappointe his future Cares for the publick Good, by u sonable Distrusts, or unseasonable Fears: An higher Honours still, should be the Reward Virtues, (of which, She who is the Fountain, most properly judge;) Let us all, in our se Stations, wish Him God speed, remembring That 'tis a Breach of the Apostolical Rule, at that very Peace we enjoy in part thro' His vidence, still to be provoking one another, envying another.

for th His So nd who v fitted with th ul Disc are of ague, est Und church ; have we eyond th of God hear the e Voice rs Bleffe ese shor s Trave unts, W them s of the the like tour Ba for wh mbrance. r can a g other Pa gforward esiding o rliament, of State,

e famous s! Wes

and Di

ood and o

odies and

in our C

ey have

for that Holy Personage, whom His God His Sovereign have entrusted with full Pomnd whom both Nature and Experience have y fitted to be an Ambassador of Peace, Togewith that Noble Patriot, who by a resolute and il Discharge of his Ministry, under an happy re of Temper with his Right Reverend ague, hath shewn himself equal to of Undertakings in the State, as the former in hurch; Let Them have the Satisfaction, now have work'd up the grand Negotiation to a Perievond the expectation of many; As to hear the of God in the Gospel applied to their Case, hear the Voice of the People upon their return, Voice of one Man, pronouncing the Peacers Bleffed.

ese short and light Compensations for their ravels, and harrassing Labours upon our ents, Who, that is not unjust to himself, can them to this Happier Triumvirate, these sof their Country? when we have not dethe like, or greater, to the Heroes that tour Battles introductory to these Halcyon for which they ought to be had in perpetual mbrance.

S

ee

e, A

rat

id t

0 hur

luti

The d G

n Go

of ion

kteth

n, a

esper

ient t

cond

nd th ing 6

into

ointe

y un An

ard o

tain,

ur se

ing (

le, ar

His envying r can a grateful Nation forget to recompence other Patriots in their due Proportion, who glorwarded the Great Work at Home, whether eliding or Assisting happily in the Two Houses rliament, more private Councils, or other Assistate, have done worthily for Britain, and a samous in Europe for Generations to come.

Is! Were we but sensible of the Haand Difficulties they have each of them and and conquer'd, That we might be saie in socies and Estates, easie in our Minds, and in our Consciences; I mean not the Difficulty have sustained in Journyings often, in Perrils things which are without; but I mean, in the Clamours, and the private Whisperings; in subtle Pretences, and the false Suggestions; in all that vexatious heap of embarrasement lodg'the Sound of Evil Report, We would think not too dear for them; we would pluck out our right in the Apostle's Phrase, and even part with the do them good: But let Posterity praise this sa Since they shall never be ashamed to speak with the nemies in the Gate, (if any such shall remain) the utmost Conviction of their doing worthy for this Nation, whether we respect the great interests of Trade, of Polity, or Religious Let Posterity I say tell what unforesten

Let Posterity, I say, tell what unforeseen sings have arose since the happy Ara; and thence let Foreigners as well as Natives among date their dearest Felicities.

Let Posterity tell this, did I fay? Nay at presen thinks, the Teeming Bleffing already fills and in the Trader with Comfort and Satisfaction; He I hear the Exporter foreboding from thence, the Husbandman's Garners shall be full, and pl with all manner of Store; that his Oxen shall be to labour, and his Sheep bring forth Thousands, Thousands at Home? whilst he that occupies siness in deep Waters from abroad, rejoices Security of Traffick, and Advantages of Con beyond former Days; How doth he notackno freely, That from the Day when the Seas pen, from the sitting of the Sun, to the n thereof; thro the multitude of his Riches an Merchandise imported, He shall become as a or as the Honourable Men upon the Earth?

As to the Affairs of Government, let suc Times tell what sufficient Care was taken, other Guaranty, for the Protestant Succession Illustrious House, and to defeat the Practices Pretender, who should disturb our Quiet.

fly, A I were to Tin of t 'd to t hro' th or to the ocured g by the nces by Rylwick hip; an ir own L e given tlet Pol igland, e Peace, pecome t the Chi ng and e Partic r Prelat Him; s of ou ives of t s, that Posterit wn Diffe our Exc uity, as gners, w

Posterit Dane and der, The Leven th have faid Lord, and in nf

not

bt !

ther

s say

in)

thy 1

he eligi

een

and

nong

reset

nd in

ence,

end pli all be

inds,

upies

oices

of Conackno

Seas 1

the ri

e as a t fuo

ken, cession

Aices

et.

Hy, As to Religion, Give me leave to wish, I were not to postpone the Advantages reap'd for to Times still more future: Our Brethren inof the Reformed in France, who were to the Gallies, some of them for perpetuihro' the tender Compassion of a true Nursing of the Churches of God, have such Redemptiocured for them, That they now no longer sit g by the Waters of Babylon; and the Protestants many would have felt the like Comfort of Her nees by a Repeal of the 4th Art. of the TreaRyswick, in a Restauration of their lost Places of hip; and they might have sung the Songs of Sion is own Land without controul, Had their Native e given in to the Conditions of Peace.
tlet Posterity tell, How the Apostolick Church tlet Posterity tell, How the Apostolick Church gland, by the Means of the Congress held e Peace, and God's Blessing thereupon, may one become the Joy of the Earth: For it was there the Chiefs of the wondering Nations being and admiring the Beauty of Holiness in the Particulars of our Worship, The Sanctity of Prelate, and the Ministers who officiated Him; The Decency of our Ceremonies, The so of our Liturgy, The Unblameableness of ives of those of our Communion, must needs so, that God was amongst us of a truth.

Posterity, I say, tell any thing but this, That wn Disserters at home were the last to recogour Excellency, and to make us the Centre sity, as 'tis allow'd by many unprejudiced gners, we must be in the latter Days.

Posterity tell, How the Swiss and the Pruss, Dane and the Swede, The Hollander and the tr, The Lutheran and the Calvinist, and at seven the Romanists, and Heathens themselves, ol would presage) in an entire Conformity have said, Come, and let us go up to the Mountain Lord, and to the House of the God of Jacob amongst

mongst you, and He will teach us of his Ways, an will walk in his Paths; for the Mountain of the H of the Lord shall be established in the Top of the h tains, and it shall be exalted above the Hills, and ple and Nations shall flow unto it.

Thus is a most Glorious War concluded, and are the more Glorious Consequences of the Peace tained by it. For this Peace, The Sum of all that been said, is, That we be Thankful: We shall form the Duty, By offering up our Lusts to our Party-Rage to the Desires of his Vicegerent, good Wishes for the subordinate Instruments and our Selves to our Neighbour's good; All the must perform, or Wickedness and Jealousies will that, which foreign Enemies could not: Let us be minded, and the God of Holiness and Peace will not bless us in this Life; but these Fruits of our Peace procure for us Quietness and Assurance of the procure

These are our Duties with respect to the Pa But, my Brethren, as we of this House, are a munity among our Selves, I should be wanting Duty, and act in contravention to my Text, I I not at this Time press you all to Gratin our immediate Governour, by whose prevails terest, great Capacity, and willing Mind, good already has been done here, and much may be expected from Him; Seeing then that by we enjoy great Quietness, and that many worthy are done to this House thro' His Providence, I accept it always, with all Thankfulness.

GE 6.

eft. p.

t their,

ntention

erers, T

16. 1.

Two late

Your Thankfulness will be best seen in Obe to your Superiors; in studying to be quiet, and doin own Business: In doing Violence to no Man; in best tent with your Wages: These Ways will play Lord, be acceptable to Men, and profitable to Selves, in procuring for you all, that most ble Peace of all other, Peace at the last.

Which God of His Infinite Mercy grant us all, &c.

FINIS.

ERRATA.

he H e M and

and Peace
Il tha
I hall
Is to
erent, ents of ill thi s will
I us b ill not Peace
the n

he Pa

ting

ext,

ratitu

evaili

lind,

much

that by

nce, I n Obe nd doi in bei vill ple ble to most grant

i must li seis

GE 6. Line 34, 35. read, for the British Subest. p. 8. 1. 25. read for, instead of to. Ib. 1.
I their, read the. p. 13.1. 21. after Murtherers, mentional ones at least. Ibid. 1. 28. instead of erers, read ones. p. 15. 1. 4. for and, read 16. 1. 18. instead of, The two last Reigns, Two late Reigns.

- Mr. STUBBS'S SERMONS Printed or to be fold by R. and J. Bonwicke the Red-Lion in St. Paul's Church-Tard.
- F Publick Baptism, at St. Paul's, before Lord Mayor. 4° 8°
- Of Confirmation, at St. Bennet Grace-Church, the Lord Bishop of London confirm'd there.
- Of the Hopes of a Resurrection, on Mr. Wrig St. Alphage; with Reslexions on the Abs Funeral Sermons. 4°
- Of God's Dominion over the Seas, on Boar Royal Sovereign. 4° 12°
 - The fame in French. 120
- Of the Restauration of the Royal Family, on Mat St. Alphage. 45.
- Of Occasional Communion, entituled, For Gol Baal. 4°
 - Of Popish Conspiracies, on Nov. 5. at St. Pau fore the Lord Mayor, entituled, The Cl England, under God, an impregnable Bul gainst Popery. 4°
- Of Religious Charity, and Religious Loyalty, o the Royal Anne. 4°
- Of Peace on Earth as the Gift of God, in tory of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich. 4
- Of the Divine Mission of Gospel-Ministers Paul's, before the Lord Mayor. 12°
- De Missione Evangelica, Concio ad Clerus